1992 -- Year of Convention and Celebrations Garsas to Mark 75th Anniversary

Plans are underway for the 72nd Convention to be held in Atlantic City some time in August.

President Thomas E. Mack and the executive committee are working out the details and we will get them to you just as soon as they are completed.

If you've never attended a convention before, make sure you don't miss this one. The year of 1992 will be a year of celebrations for the Lithuanian Catholic Alliance.

First and foremost, on September 6, 1992 we will be celebrating the first anniversary of Lithuania's freedom from 50 years of Soviet domination.

Four days before that special day we will celebrate the day President George Bush granted recognition to Lithuania and on that same day, at the closing of the Congressional session in Moscow, legislator Arkadi Murashev said, "today literally was the end of the Soviet Union."

Then on September 3, the three Baltic republics applied for membership in the United Nations and on September 17, 1991, Lithuanian President Vytautas Landsbergis and members of the Lithuanian delegation proudly took their seats along with six other new member nations.

American Lithuanians will proudly remember those dates in a special way this year.

The Lithuanian Catholic Alliance is doing a bit of its own celebrating in 1992. It's a Diamond Jubilee for the Alliance's official publication, Garsas which will be 75 years old on May 17, 1992.

The Alliance will be celebrating 106 years of service to its members and, in recognition of those 106 years, will be featuring its $2,000 Single Premium Policy for $106 to all children under the age of five years.

In a day and age when parents think nothing of spending $200 and more on electronic games such as Super Nintendo and others we should place some value on insurance protection for our children.

Signing into the family or LCA may one day help your child mortgage a future home, take a vacation or re-invest in another type of coverage.

A 20 year Endowment Policy taken out for a newborn could be a big help when that child enrolls in college. There are different forms of coverage for different individuals, you determine which is best for you.

Keep in mind - for one half the price of an electronic game you have lifetime coverage for a child under the age of 5 years.

While marking all the wonderful celebrations of 1992, the investment in insurance protection in the close of the 20th century could make a difference for loved ones in the 21st century.

Pick up the phone and call collect (717) 823-8876 and we'll do the rest. Or if you prefer, - just fill in the blank on this page and forward it to us.

Pictured above is Melissa Ann Kozerski, one of our newest $106 policy members, pictured with sister, Jennifer Lynn, also a member. Jennifer celebrated her third birthday this past November.

Melissa and Jennifer are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kozerski. They are the grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. William Kozerski, Plains, PA and the great-grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. John Kozerski, also of Plains.

John and Mary Kozerski serve on the Judicial Grievances and Appeals Constitutional Committee and John is also Secretary of Lodge 212.

Florence Eckert / The Changing Church

It was a beautiful church! The priest solemnly raised the host with both hands for all to see, and the chimes were sounded by the altar boy. The congregation bowed in respect to the "Body of Christ."

This was not a "symbol" of a replica of the Man-God. This was the BODY OF CHRIST!!

Through the words and actions of the priest at the altar, a simple wafer of unleavened bread became the body of Christ!

Nowhere in the world by kings, queens or the greatest of celebrities could a greater miracle than this be performed, and in the presence of simple, everyday people.

There is no admission charged, and saints and repented sinners alike are called to share in receiving this very body of Christ!

As a little girl, I remember how reverently we bowed our heads at this moment during the Mass. You could hear your heart inside you beating when the priest raised the host and the bells rang out, signaling the transformation taking place. I used to close my eyes and picture the choirs of angels that I felt came down from heaven, surrounding the altar and adoring Christ at this moment, and I made an act of contrition in anticipation of receiving my Lord.

Walking up to the altar rail where we used to kneel to receive, my head was bowed and my hands were folded. I was oblivious to all around me while waiting for that special moment when my soul would be nourished by my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

With head bowed and hands folded, I walked back to my seat, where I knelt in meditation until the wafer dissolved in my mouth and I felt the presence of Jesus in my soul.

These very special moments of heavenly bliss I experienced were a reward of my upbringing by good and loving parents, who believed that love of God and love of neighbor came before all other responsibilities owed their children.

At an early age, I learned the meaning of love, respect and obedience, and my day ended with evening prayers at my mother's knee before being tucked into bed.

Dad worked hard to provide food, clothes and shelter, and Mom provided home-baked goodies, home-made toys and loads and loads of love and kisses.

She was always there, and that was much more important than a room full of expensive toys. I just can't imagine how frightened I would have been if I called, "Mama!" and she wasn't there! Morning, noon or night, you could reach out for mama's apron strings, whether she was busy cooking, sewing or washing clothes. Hanging onto those apron strings was such a secure feeling.

What has happened in my short lifetime to change all this so drastically? Where is the reverence, the respect and the tremendous awe over what is taking place on the altar at Mass? Why is everything treated so casually, and why are people ignoring the great miracle?

Attending Mass today, there are so many distractions there is little chance you could avoid them.

Two beautiful young couples directly in front of me at Mass were busily engaged in conversation and snickering while the priest was elevating the host and the transformation was taking place. This lack of interest was present in other areas of the church also. People are there in body, obviously fulfilling a duty but totally ignoring what is taking place on that altar!

How often do you see them ignore a rock star at a rock concert? Yet they ignore Jesus present on this altar before them!!

After the host is elevated and just before the congregation is invited to receive, about one third of the congregation rushes out the door. Where are they going? Mass isn't over. What an insult to the King of Kings!!!

The young communicants have no resemblance whatsoever to the children of my day. All the way up the aisle, they're looking all over, and if friends are together, they're kidding around, etc. When they receive, they walk back grinning and chewing as if they had a mouth full of caramel candy. No reverence whatsoever -- no contemplation of what just took place. I even witnessed (more than once) a child take chewing gum out and place it on the back of his hand until he received, and then, back goes the gum in the mouth.

The sad part of it all is these children are not to be criticized, but rather to be pitied. A check with them would reveal they have little if any idea what is taking place on that altar.

Where would they learn about it all? The family has been all but abolished from the American scene. The Madonna they know is the one who wears undergarments as outergarments and is everything but a model of modesty.

Who has taught them morning or night prayers, love of God and Neighbor, modesty and respect?

They are being raised in a sex-oriented society where anything goes. Condoms are distributed in schools and pregnant little girls are a common sight in today's classrooms.

During this Holy Season of Lent, take a good look at the cross above the altar (if it's still there). Today it's an image, but tomorrow -- one tomorrow -- you will stand before HIM -- the God who gave these children to you, and you will answer to Him for the way you raised them.

Did you teach them about HIM? Did you teach them to love their neighbor? Did you teach them the Ten Commandments?

If you didn't -- you robbed them of knowing, loving and serving God, and not they -- but YOU -- will answer for this!!

If a change is needed, make it now. IT'S STILL NOT TOO LATE!!!

Retired Berklee Composer to Receive Top Honor at Lithuanian Independence Celebration

For Jerome Kachinskas, composer, conductor and retired Berklee College of Music professor, the road home has been a long one. Forty-seven years after fleeing from the Communist regime that conquered his native Lithuania during World War II, Kachinskas has been invited back to receive his country's 1991 Composition Prize during celebrations commemorating the first anniversary of Lithuanian Independence on February 16.

This October, in his first return to his homeland since 1944, Kachinskas received a long-overdue welcome home. A six-concert festival of his music served to reacquaint the Lithuanian people with one of their most important twentieth-century composers and conductors.

Not forgotten:

Though nearly five decades have passed since his departure, Kachinskas was never forgotten. The new Lithuanian Ministry of Education and Culture (created after the collapse of the Soviet Regime) and an association of Lithuanian composers supported an effort to seek out and present the music of distinguished Lithuanian emigres. Kachinskas was invited back to Lithuania in October, 1991, for an extensive homecoming celebration and festival devoted exclusively to his chamber, choral and orchestral music. The event netted full television coverage and captured the attention of the national press.

The trip home was a deeply moving and emotional one. Kachinskas was reunited with friends and relatives, and he visited places he had not seen since the war years.

Genesis

For Jeronimas Kachinskas, who describes his life as an odyssey, it all began in Vidukle, Lithuania, where he was born in 1907. The son of a church organist, Kachinskas was exposed to the classics very early in life. Upon reaching his twenties, he entered the conservatory in Klaipeda to study viola, piano and composition. Further studies took him to the Prague Conservatory in Czechoslovakia in 1929 where, after earning his bachelor's degree in composition, he stayed on to pursue further study in quarter-tone composition and conducting, before returning to Lithuania in 1931.

As his compositions began attracting attention at European contemporary music festivals, he became acquainted with Paul Hindemith, Luigi Dallapiccola and Alan Rawsthorne, his peers in the rising generation of composers. In 1938, his Nonet was performed at the International Festival of Contemporary Music in London. After the concert, which also featured a work by Oliver Messiaen and Bela Bartok's Concerto for Two Pianos, Percussion and Orchestra, Bartok praised the work of the younger Kachinskas.

Simultaneously, Kachinskas held a teaching position at the State Conservatory in Vilnius the Lithuanian capitol city, and a succession of conducting posts for 12 years with the Klaipeda Symphony Orchestra, the Kaunas Radio Orchestra and the State Opera and Philharmonic Orchestras in Vilnius. His career continued uninterrupted, even during Lithuania's German occupation. By 1944, he had directed more than 1000 orchestral and opera concerts and radio broadcasts.

Exodus

Conditions went from bad to worse when the Russians overran the country in 1944. Many of Kachinskas' early scores were destroyed in bombing attacks. Personal clashes with the new conquerors convinced him that he could not live under Russian domination.

"We spent one year under Stalin, and it was very harsh," remembers Kachinskas. "One of my wife's brothers was shot, another was sent off to Siberia. The Russians had forbidden my compositions to be played after the state declared them bourgeois and decadent. I became outspoken and perhaps too provocative towards them because I felt so strongly that they should not interfere with my work as a composer and conductor. Someone informed me that my name was on the second list of people to be taken away to Siberia, so in June of 1944, my wife, Elena, and I escaped."

They left most of their belongings, including his piano, behind in their apartment and made their exodus with a group of people.

"I put a few necessities and what was left of my manuscripts, concert programs and reviews into a horse-drawn farm cart," states Kachinskas, "and we left. We managed to get about 250 miles from Vilnius, avoiding encirclement on three separate occasions. Finally we were caught in the middle of a battle and had to abandon the cart in the road. At that point, my only thought was to save my wife's life. I don't know what happened to my music. I'll probably never know whether it was picked up or thrown away."

Kachinskas and Elena walked another 300 miles to Lednice, Czechoslovakia. Finding it also occupied by the Russians, they continued on to Augsburg, Germany, which was American-held territory. There they were taken to a displaced persons camp, where the Americans fed and housed them. While at Augsburg, the indomitable Kachinskas set about organizing groups for choral concerts in the camp. With help from former contacts, he arranged for appearances as guest conductor in three Lud-wigsbouw Hall concerts with the Augsburg City Orchestra (a major German orchestra at the time), as well as appearances with the Prague Radio Symphony, and the Dubrovník Symphony Orchestra in Yugoslavia. Eventually, with advice and help from new American friends, Jeronimas and Elena Kachinskas made their way to America, arriving on March 24, 1949.

New Beginnings

Settling in Boston, Kachinskas took a job playing organ and directing the choir for the parish at St. Peter's Lithuanian Church in South Boston. He met Berklee College of Music professor John Bavicchi, who became an important advocate, helping him find work and mounting numerous performances of his works.

"I encouraged him to apply for a job as conductor of the Melrose Symphony Orchestra," Bavicchi states. "He was concerned that his English might not be strong enough to communicate his ideas to the orchestra, but he was hired, and language was not a problem. Later when Berklee needed a conducting teacher, I felt it would be of benefit to the

The Strange Lithuanian Verbal System

Did you know there is not a single compound verb in the Lithuanian language?

Well, according to Antanas Klimas, noted Lithuanian linguist, the possibilities of word-formation of the Lithuanian verbal system are very limited. He notes there are only twelve prefixes and seven suffixes and absolutely no compounded verbs!

Klimas, Associate Professor of German at the University of Rochester, studied at the University of Kaunas and the Baltic University (Hamburg, Germany) and completed his studies at the University of Pennsylvania with a PhD. in Germanic Linguistics in 1956. He taught at the University of Pennsylvania from 1950-1957, and has been teaching at the University of Rochester since 1957, where he is now Professor of German linguistics.

In an article in the quarterly "Lituanas," Klimas writes, "Linguistics noticed a long time ago an interesting and curious fact, a kind of discrepancy between the word-formation possibilities of the Lithuanian noun and verb systems. The word-formation possibilities of the Lithuanian nominal system are enormous: there are about 600 derivative suffixes, many prefixes and there are at least fourteen ways of forming new compound nouns.

"On the other hand, the possibilities of word-formation of the Lithuanian verbal system are very much more limited, namely there are only twelve prefixes and seven suffixes. There is not a single compound verb in Lithuanian at all!

"Furthermore, only the basic verbs of motion and concrete action can take all the 12 prefixes; some verbs take only one or two. And as to suffixes, only a certain number of nouns and adjectives lend themselves to be the base words from which one or more derivative verbs can be formed.

"We shall now list, alphabetically, the 12 verbal prefixes, illustrating them with derivative verbs, all made with the basic verb eiti 'to go.'

- (1) ap- : apeiti 'to go (walk) around sm.; to avoid'
- (2) at- : ateiti 'to come, to arrive (on foot)'
- (3) i- : ieiti; 'to go into/in, to enter, to be part of'
- (4) is- : iseti 'to go/walk out, to leave'
- (5) nu- : nueti 'to go/walk somewhere, reach'
- (6) pa- : paeti 'to walk a little, to be able to walk'
- (7) par- : pareiti 'to come home; to return'
- (8) per- : pereiti 'to cross (on foot); to walk through sm.'
- (9) pra- : praeiti 'to pass; to walk by'
- (10) pri- : prieti 'to approach (on foot)'
- (11) su- : sueti 'to gather together'
- (12) uz- : uzeiti 'to drop in/by; to go up'

NB. If the appropriate verb begins with a labial (p or b), then ap- becomes api- e.g., begti '(to run)'; becomes apibegti 'to run around sm.' If the appropriate verb begins with a dental (t or d), then at- becomes ati-, e.g., daryti 'to make'; becomes atidaryti 'to open'.

"Furthermore, many prefixed verbs have many meanings; we have given here only the very basic ones.

Some prefixes can be used only with the reflexive verb of the same base; e.g., melsti 'to beg' cannot be prefixed with pa: in other words, there is no *pamelsti, but the reflexive, pasimelsti 'to pray for a short while' is frequently used.

"To further illustrate the usage of the prefixes, we shall now list the reflexive forms as well:

Non-reflexive

apimti 'to extend, to contain' atimt 'to take away, to remove' iimti 'to take in, as a dress'

isimti 'to take out'

nuimti 'to remove' paimti 'to remove'
parimti:(not used) perimti 'to take over'

praimti 'to start on sm.'
priimti 'to accept, receive' suimti 'to arrest, grab firmly' uzimti 'to occupy'

"As in so many other cases, quite often the meaning of the derived verb depends on the situation, on the contents of the entire sentence. A native speaker usually will always know which one to use; the learner has to consult some very extensive dictionaries with many practical examples.

Editor's note: To study this more extensively, we suggest the book, Introduction to Modern Lithuanian, co-authored by Dambriunas, Klimas and Schmalstieg.

Now to go a bit into the suffixes, Klimas writes,

"The seven suffixes are:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| (1) - (i)auti: tarnas 'servant' | tarnauti 'to serve' |
| (2) - enti: gyvas '(a)live' | gyventi 'to live' |
| (3) - eti: kalba 'language' | kalbeti 'to speak' |
| (4) - inti geras 'good': | gerinti 'to make better, to improve' |
| (5) - yti: taupas 'thrifty': | taupyt 'to save (money) |
| (6) - (i)oti: galva 'head' | galvoti 'to think' |
| (7) - (i)uoti daina 'song': | dainuoti 'to sing' |

NB: Strictly speaking, since the -ti (an old dative) is the normal infinitive ending, then the real suffixes (or suffixal morphemes) are only: -(i)au-, -en-, -e-, -in-, -y-, (i)o and (i)uo-, but from the practical point of view, we shall use the suffixes together with the infinitive ending, thus: -(i)auti, -enti, -eti, -inti, -yti, -(i)oti and -(i)uoti.

Editor's note: We have given a wee bit of insight into the very difficult Lithuanian language through the linguistic knowledge of Antanas Klimas. For young scholars with an interest into this very complex language, we suggest seeking out some of Klimas' works along with those of other noted linguists.

In ancient Greece the laurel tree was considered sacred to the god Apollo, patron of poets. Hence poets who won distinction were crowned with a wreath of laurels.

Lithuanians Celebrate "Kucios"

This past holiday Christmas season the Knights of Lithuanian Council 143 held a "Kucios" celebration recently at St. Casimir's Parish hall in Pittston. Kucios is observed Christmas eve with the appearance of the first evening star. Dinner consisting of twelve foods is served with family members present. The twelve foods reminds us of the twelve apostles at the Last Supper. Seated from left: Rosalie Kizis, LCA Trustee; Rev. Edward Barrett, spiritual advisor of council 143; Dorothy Banos; Rev. Mark Rossetti;

The Luzerne County Funeral Directors Association held its annual installation of officers and executive board members at the HoJo Inn, Hemingway's complex, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. President Mark V. Yanaitis of Hudson installed the officers and executive board members to their offices. Principals at the dinner were seated from left: Martha Yanaitis, Marilyn Gubbiotti-Jones, vice-president; Mary Sites, Pat Yeosock, Ruth Morris and Dr. Lauren Argenio. Standing: Mark Yanaitis, president; James M. Desiderio, executive board; John J. Peters, immediate past president; Edwin Sites, executive board; Michael J. Yeosock, secretary-treasurer; John V. Morris, executive board, and H. Merritt Hughes, district governor. Mr. and Mrs. Sites are members of Lodge 7 and Mr. Sites serves as Director of the LCA.

college to have someone of his stature teaching the subject, so I recommended him."

Kachinskas joined the Berklee faculty in 1967 and taught conducting and composition there for 19 years. During those years, Bavicchi and other Berklee faculty members presented and participated in numerous performances of Kachinskas' works, including his Mass, saxophone quartets, choral music and songs.

"Teaching at a jazz school did not hurt me," muses Kachinskas. "I remember once Berklee founder and Chancellor Lawrence Berk played me a classical melody and asked if I could help him identify the composer. I jokingly asked if he thought I could still be trusted to do that as I'd been teaching at Berklee for so many years. I enjoyed my time at Berklee very much and met many gifted students."

K of L Council 143 Hosts Amber District Meeting

A meeting of the Amber District of the Knights of Lithuanian was hosted by Council 143 of Pittston, PA at St. Casimir's Church Hall in Pittston.

Mass was celebrated by Msgr. Gerald Burns followed by dinner in the church hall. Nine councils were represented and new officers were elected.

The St. Casimir's Day meeting will be hosted by Council 118, Hazleton, PA., March 8, 1992.

The 79th National Convention will be hosted by Anthracite Council 144 at the Allentown Hilton Hotel, Allentown, PA. July 16-19

A Tale to Tell

Retired from teaching now, Kachinskas continues to play the organ on Sunday mornings at St. Peter's in South Boston, and to compose. During his recent homecoming, he received a commission from the Klaipeda Conservatory to compose a four-movement work for chorus and orchestra to commemorate the 750th anniversary of the founding of the city by the Crusaders.

"I'm working like mad to meet the May deadline," states Kachinskas. "My cantata will blend modern themes with those of traditional Lithuanian folk music. The text is historical and describes ancient patriotic tales as well as modern ones. Through the ages, Lithuania has known many invading armies."

As a witness to some of the most dramatic events of Lithuania's 20th-century history, Jeronimas Kachinskas is the right composer to tell the tale.

Marie Yanulus and Anthony Calderoni United in Marriage

MR. AND MRS. ANTHONY A. CALDERONI

Marie Catherine Yanulus, Reading, PA., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael S. Yanulus, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Anthony A. Calderoni, also of Reading, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony A. Calderoni, Kenhorst, were recently united in marriage during a Nuptial Mass celebrated by Rev. Thomas Carten, friend of the couple. Readers were Cynthia Szmigala and Jack Calderoni, uncle of the groom.

A reception was held at Genetti's, Wilkes-Barre.

The bride is a graduate of G.A.R. High School; Moravian College, Bethlehem, where she received a bachelor's degree in English; and Kutztown University, where she received a master's degree in English. She is employed by CNA Insurance, Reading.

The groom, a graduate of Governor Mifflin High School, attended Reading Area Community College. He is employed by Berks and Reading Area Transportation Authority, and is also a part-time photographer.

Following a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico, the couple are residing in Reading. The bride is a member of Lodge 222.

Special Notice

In the January 9, 1992 issue of Draugus, it was reported that a Lithuanian bank refused to accept $500 in American dollars (banknotes) because they were "crushed."

The customer then asked an American/Lithuanian to cash them in an American bank where it was discovered the money was counterfeit.

From this report, it appears there are many counterfeit bills circulating in Lithuania.

Americans should notify their relatives in Lithuania to be wary about accepting dollar bills from strangers.

Iškilmingas įžengimas į Vilniaus katedrą ir arkivyskupijos valdymo perėmimas įvyks 1992 m. kovo 4 d., šv. Kazimiero šventėje.

Prel. Ladas Tulaba, P.A., iš Romos praneša, kad Popiežius oficialiu apaštaliniu raštu, datuotu 1991 m. gruodžio 24 d., paskelbė naują Lietuvos Bažnytinės Provincijos sudarymą.

Popiežius Pijus XI 1926 m. balandžio 4 d. apaštaline konstitucija "Lituanorum Gente" įsteigė pirmąją Lietuvos Bažnytinę Provinciją su metropolija Kaune ir keturiomis sufraganiinėmis diecezijomis: Kaišiadorių, Telšių, Panevėžio ir Vilkaviškio.

Dabar popiežius Jonas Paulius II paskelbė naujai pertvarkytą Lietuvos Bažnytinės Provincijos santvarką su dviem — Vilniaus ir Kauno — metropoljomis ir keturiomis sufraganiinėmis die-cezijomis: dviem prie Vilniaus (Kaišiadorių ir Panevėžio) ir dviem prie Kauno (Telšių ir Vilkaviškio).

Visa tai įvyko, kai atsirado galimybė tai įvykdyti, tai yra, kai Lietuva atgavo politinę nepriklausomybę. Vilniaus arkidiecezija prie Lietuvos Bažnytinės Pro-vincijos priskirta ne šiaip sau, bet priskirta kaip metropolija su dviem sufraganiinėmis diecezijomis, su pirmaujančia role krašte, kaip ir dera sostinei. Naujuoju Vilniaus arkivyskupu ir pirmuoju metropolitu paskirtas arkivyskupas Audrys Bačkys, paskutiniuoju laiku ējës Vatikano prounicijaus pareigas Olandijoje.

LIETUVOS AMBASADOS JUNGtinėMS TAUTOMS VEIKLA IR RŪPESČIAI

Lietuvos Ambasados Jungtinėms Tautoms veikla ir išsilaikeymui besirūpinantiems pranešama, kad pastaruoju metu, gavus Tautos Fondo — VLIKOKelis stambesnius čekius, gruodžio 9 d. atidaryta speciali sąskaita ambasadados Jungtinėms Tautoms aptarnaujamame banke. Ton sąskaiton bus dedamos įvairios lėšos, gautos ambasadados išlaikymui ir veiklai. Išmokėjimai bus daromi vien tik su Lietuvos Ambasados veikimu surištomis išlaidomis.

Lietuvos Ambasada pradėjo veikti nuo rugsėjo 17 dienos, t.y. tos dienos, kai Lietuva tapo pilnateise Jungtinijos Tautų nare. Iki šiol Ambasada gyveno, taip sakan, skolon. Tai nebuvo per daug sunku, nes visi penki jos nariai bent laikinai dirba kaip savanoriai, be algų, išskiriant vieną atvejį. Be to, Ambasada yra prisiglaudusi Lietuvos Generalinio Konsulato patalpose be nuomos mokesčio.

Jungtinės Tautos yra konkreti

plačiojo pasaulio arena, kurioje Lietuvos balsas gali būt išgirstas. Džiugu, kad lietuvių visuomenė tą padėtį gerai supranta ir įvertina. Tai didelis paskatinimas ir moralinė parama pirmuosius įsikūrimo žygius atliekantiems, ypatingai, jei pagalba ateina net jos neprašant.

Šia proga ir vienas kitas žodis apie Lietuvos Ambasados Jungtinėms Tautoms pagrindinį darbą. Jis padalintas į septynis komitetus. Normaliai suprantama, kad kiekviena valstybė turės bent po vieną atstovą tuose komitetuose. Iš to aišku, kad ir mažos valstybės ambasada privalo turėti bent penkis ar šešis narius.

Štai, kaip Lietuvos Ambasados žmonės šiuo metu darbais pasiskirste: Pirmajam — Politiniam ir Saugumo Komitete, ir Specialiajam Politiniam Komite, kartu su Gurecku, veikia vice-ministras Gediminas Šerkšnys. Nors kaip svečias jis į oficialų delegacijos sąrašą neįtrauktas, jo veiklai jokių apribojimų nėra. Aktyviai dalyvaudamas komitetų posėdžiuose, jis turi puikią progą susipažinti su Jungtinijos Tautų organizacija ir veikimu.

Antrajam (ekonominiam), ketvirtajam (kolonijų) ir šeštajam (teisiniame) komitete pakaitom veikia Algimantas Gureckas. Trečiąjam Komitete (socialinių, humanitarinių ir kultūrinių reikalų) — Gintė Damušytė.

Šiuo metu sunkiausias darbas yra Penktajam Komitete (biudžeto), kur vyksta svarstymai ir debybos dėl nario mokesčio nustatymo dydžio Lietuvai, Latvijai ir Estijai. Pagal senus ir ne visai realius skaičiavimus Lietuvai tektų net iki milijono dolerių metinio nario mokesčio. Šiame komitete darbuojasi Darius Sužiedėlis.

Šalia tų komitetų, veikia daug institucijų specialiems reikalamams. Kaip pavyzdžiu, Pasaulinė Sveikatos Organizacija — World Health Organization (WHO) ir UN Development Programme (UNDP). Pastarosios atstovai gruodžio 7-11 dienomis lankėsi Vilniuje ir aptarė ilgalaikio vystymosi programos sustatymą ir vykdymą Lietuvje. Pirmuoju Lietuvos atstovu

VATIKANO NUNCIJUS TIKI LIETUVA, LATVIA, ESTIJA

— Arkivyskupas Justo Mullor Garcia kalba apie savo naujias pareigas —

Pereitį metų gruodžio viduryje Popiežiškoje Šv. Kazimiero Lietuviai kolegijoje Romoje lankesi nesenai nuncijumi Lietuvos, Latvijoje ir Estijoje paskirtasis arkivyskupas Justo Mullor Garcia.

Naujasis nuncijus maloniai atsakė į Vatikano Radijo lietuvių programos redaktoriaus klausimus:

Ekselencija, Jūs nesenai buvote paskirtas apaštaliniu nuncijumi Pabaltijo kraštuose: Lietuvoje, Latvijoje ir Estijoje. Su kokiais jausmais priėmėte ši Šv. Tėvo paskyrimą?

Sunku keliais žodžiais nusakyti jausmus kuriais priėmiančiai ši paskyrimą. Nes tūjaušmū tikrai daug ir jie įvairūs. Visų pirmą, esu labai patenkintas, kad galésiu atstovauti Šv. Tėvui jūsų tėvynėje ir Latvijoje bei Estijoje.

Po penkiasdešimties metų Popiežius pagaliau turi savo atstovą tarp jūsų. Taip pat jaučiu pasitenkinimą grynais žmogiškajais prasme. Prieš ketverius metus mirusi mano motina, tarytum išpranašaudama, kad ateis diena, kai Popiežius pasisiųs savo atstovus į Pabaltijo kraštus, man pasakė: "Tu vyksi į tuos kraštus". Dėl to aš tikrai šiuo paskyrimu džiaugiuosi ir didžiuojuosi.

Džiaugiuosi taip pat kaip diplomatas: nes šią metų vasario mėnesį kalbédamas Genevoje primygintinai reikalavau Pabaltijo kraštų pripažinimo, o tose pačiose patalpose drauge sėdėjo ir Pabaltijo kraštus okupavusios valstybės atstovai.

Kai kam tada atrodė, kad aš kalbu apie kažkokią utopiją. Tai gali visa tai turint omenyje, aš be galio džiaugiuosi, kaip kunigas ir kaip žmogus, džiaugiuosi, kad man lemta būti diplomatiniu atstovu Vilniuje, Rygoje ir Taline. Vyktu pas jus kaip visuotinės Bažnyčios tarnas, vyktu įsiklausti į jūsų lūkesčius, jūsų jausmus, jūsų problemas ir drauge vyktu jums kalbėti Popiežiaus vardu, taigi vyktu pas jus, kad būčiau Popiežiaus balso skleidėjas ir iš kitos pusės, kad Popiežiaus pavedimu klausyčiau ir stebēčiau jūsų tikrovę.

Gal galėtumėte apie save ką nors papasakoti?

Apie save tikrai nedaug ką galiu pasakyti. Visų pirmą esu krikščionis, paskui esu kunigas, vyksupas, esu žmogus besistentiantis būti jautrus kitų problemoms. Esu ispanas, iš dalies vokiečių kilmės, iš motinos pusės. Didelę savo gyvenimo dalį — 22 metus — praleidau už savo tėvynės ribų. Devynerius metus Romoje dirbau Šv. Sosto tarnyboje, nunciaturose Belgijoje ir Portugalijoje, įsteigiau Apaštalų Sosto atstovybę prie Europos Tarybos Strasbourg, iš ten buvau pasiūstas į tris Afrikos kraštus, ypač Dramblio Kaulo Kranto respublikoje patyriau didžiulį misionieriškojo darbo džiaugsmą.

Pastaruoju metu dirbau Genevoje. Domėjausi socialinėmnis problemomis, parašiau dvi knygas: Ispanijoje buvo išleista Naujoji Krikščionybė ir šiemet Isapanijoje ir Italijoje — knyga Dievas tiki žmogumi. Parafrazuodamas šios pastarosios knygos pavadinimą, sakau jums, kad aš tikiu Lietuvą, Latviją ir Estiją.

Ar turite konkrečių planų arčiausiai ateiciai ryšium su

Jūsų misija Pabaltijo kraštuose?

Visų pirmą, norėčiau kuo greičiausiai vykti į Vilnių, kai tik bus įrengtos patalpos prie Šventųjų Petro ir Pauliaus bažnyčios. Nuvykės pirmiausia susitiksiu su broliais vyskupais, užmegsiu ryšius su valdžia, su žmonėmis, su jaunimu, su vienuoliais ir vienuolėmis.

Aš manau, kad nuncijus, norédamas nustatyti planus, visų pirmą turi įsiklausyti į vietos žmonių balsą. Svarbiausia užduotimi man bus likti ištikimu Popiežiaus minties skleidėju ir ištikimai Šv. Tėvui perduoti lietuvių lūkesčius ir problemas.

kelionės išlaidas ir parūpino pil-ną pragyvenimą

Turint galvoje, kad prie tų visų darbų Lietuvos Ambasadai tenka rūpintis tinkamų patalpų išsigijimu ar bent išsinuomojimu, finansinė našta gali tapti sunkiai pakeliaama, ypatingai, kai pasibaigus savanorystės laikotarpiui, penkiems tarnautojams reikės mokėti algas.

Kaip ten bebūtų, Lietuvos Ambasada iš gautų ir pažadetų ištaklių, kukliai elgdamas, tikisi išsilaikyti iki sekančios vasaros vidurio. Tuo metu Lietuva gal jau turės savo valiutą ir bus ekonomiškai tiek sustiprėjusi, kad galės perimti savo Ambasados išlaikymą.

Norintieji prie Ambasados išlaikymo prisidėti, čekius gali rašyti: Permanent Mission of Lithuania to the United Nations, 41 West 82 Street, New York, NY 10024.

Tautos Fondu — VLIKui ir visiems Ambasados įsikūrimą ir veiklą parėmusiems nuoširdžiai dėkoju. Taip pat nuoširdus ačiū ir savanoriams talkininkams.

VILNIAUS SŪNUS ŽENGIA Į ALTORIŲ GARBĘ

— Lietuvos ir Lenkijos šventuoju kanonizuotas vienuolis Kalinauskas —

Šalia šventojo Kazimiero, Bažnyčios altorių garbėje lietuviams iškyla naujas šventasis — Juozapas Rapolas Kalinauskas, kurį, kaip ir šventajį Kazimierą, pagrįstai savinasi abi tautos: lietuviai ir lenkai. Tai pabrėžia ir Popiežius.

Kai lapkričio 17 d. Šv. Petro bazilikoje jisai aukojo iškilmingas mišias, kurių metu Bažnyčios šventuoju paskelbė karmelitę vienuolių kunigą Juozapą Rapolą Kalinauską, po Evangelijos Popiežius pasveikino lenkus ir lietuvius.

I lietuvius jis kreipėsi šiais žodžiais: "Brangūs broliai, atvykė jau iš laisvos Lietuvos. Sveikinu jus visus: Lietuvos vyskupus, kunigus, pasauliečius tikinčiuosius ir nuoširdžiai laiminti visą jūsų brangią tévynę".

Toliau Jonas Paulius II kalbėjo: "I šiandien Bažnyčios šventuoju skeliami Juozapo Rapolo Kalinausko lūpas galime ijdėti tautų apaštalo šv. Pauliaus žodžius: ...aš veržiuosi pirmyn į tikslą, siekiu laimikio aukštibės, kurio Dievas kviečia siekti Jézuje Kristuje" (Fil. 3.13-14).

Toks siekimas, toks veržimasis pirmyn, reikalauja didelio pasiaukojimo, didelio uolumo ir nuolankumo. Šv. Rapolas Kalinauskas, nė kiek neabejodamas, žengė šiuo apaštalo Pauliaus nurodytu keliu. Paliko viską, ką turėjo, ir veržesi pirmyn, siekė laimikio aukštibės.

Tad džiaukis, Vilniau, gimtasis šventojo mieste, su Aušros Vartų šventove, džiūgauk žemės, kurios Rapolas tévynė, nes štai tavo sūnus žengia į altorių garbę. Džiūgauk karmelitų bendrija, dvasine Rapolo šeima, nes tavo sūnus tapo brandžiu dangaus karalystės vaisiumi".

Kanonizacijos mišias drauge su Šv. Tėvu koncelebravo Vilniaus arkivyskupijos valdytojas vysk. Juozas Tunaitis, Lenkijos primas kard. Glemp, Krokuvos arkivyskupas kard. Macharski, Maskvos apaštalinis administratorius arkivyskupas Tadas Kondrusevičius, karmelitų ordino vadovai. Mišiose, tarp kitų, dalyvavo Lietuvos Aukščiausiosios Tarybos pirmininkas Vytautas Landsbergis, Lietuvos ambasadorius Washingtone ir atstovas prie Apaštalu Sosto Stasys Lozoraitis, Lenkijos prezidentas Lech Wałęsa.

Gimė Vilniuje

I altorių garbę iškilmingai pakeltasis karmelitas kunigas Kalinauskas gimė 1835 m. Vilniuje, bajorų Kalinauskų (Kalinowski) šeimoje ir buvo pakrikšytas Juozapo vardu. Jo religiniam auklėjimui daug nusipelnė pamotė Zofija Putkameraitė, giliai tikinti ir jautri moteris, garsėjusi to meto Lietuvos visuomenėje savo labdaros darbais ir pamaldumu.

Kalinauskas jaunystėje mažai kuo skyrėsi nuo savo bendraamžių — jo ankstyvoji biografija tipiška 19 a. pirmos pusės Lietuvos bajorui. Jis baigė Vilniaus bajorų institutą ir nuo 1853 m. mokėsi Peterburgo Karo inžinerijos akademijoje, kuriai baigės gavo toje pačioje aukštajoje mokykloje dėstytojo vietą. Tarnavo caro armijos inžineriniame dalinyje. Studijų ir tarnybos metais pergyveno gilią Saulėžiūros krizę, kurios metu jaunas ir geras karjeros perspektyvas turintis karininkas, kiek galima spręsti iš jo užrašų ir die-noraščio, iš pagrindų permastė ir išgyveno Dievo ir žmogaus santykį. Šita krizė paskatino Kalinauską keisti savo gyvenimo būdą ir bandyti gyventi pagal Evangeliją. "Viešpatie, jeigu man suteikei gyvenimą, padaryk, kad gyvenčiau tik Tau, kad kiekvienas mano poelgis būtų Tavo meilės įkvėptas", rašė tais metais Kalinauskas.

Įsitraukia į sukiliimo veiklą

Tarnaudamas carinėje armijoje, Kalinauskas rūpinosi neturtingaisiais, lankę ir šelpę kalinius bei ligonių, bandė padėti jiems ne tik materialiai, bet ir dvasiui. Karinė tarnyba vis labiau ji vargino, nes jaunuolis vis dažniau galvojo apie kunigo ir vienuolio kelią. Tuo pačiu metu patriotiškai nusiteikę tautiečiai bandė Kalinauską įtraukti į konspiracinę veiklą, bet pradžioje jis atsisakė. Tačiau vėliau, po ilgų svarstymų apie žmogiškas ir plietines pareigas, Kalinauskas sutiko prisidėti prie pogrindinės veiklos, dalyvavo paskutiniuose 1863 m. sukilio parengimo darbuose, ir buvo paskirtas Lietuvos karo skyriaus viršininku.

Sutiko dalyvauti sukilime su ta sąlyga, kad rūpinsis tik kariniai reikalais, jam nereikės daryti mirties sprendimų. 10 mėnesių veikės Vilniuje, gen. Muravjovo įsakymu suimtas ir nuteistas paskartai, tačiau liko gyvas jį užtarus buvusiems jo draugams rusams, kurie įtikino Muravjovą, kad Kalinausko nužudymas sudarysias jam kankinio aureolę, o tai dar labiau pažadins sukilių dvasią.

Mirties bausmė pakeista visam gyvenimui ištremimu į Sibiro sunkiuosius darbus.

Nuo kalinio iki vienuolio

Etapo keliu drauge su kitais sukilieliais, 1865 m. nuvarytas į Usolą, netoli Irkucko, kur buvo didžiulės druskos kasyklos. Tremtyje jam kilo mintis stoti į karmelitų ordiną, jei tik pavyks atgauti laisvę. Draugai tremtiniai jį laikė šventu vyru ir savo sustatytoje litanijoje buvo įsidėje posmą: Per Kalinausko maldas, gelbék mus, Viešpatie! Po 10 metų, pasinaudodamas amnestija, Kalinauskas atgavo laisvę ir nuvyko į Krokuvą, o iš ten į Paryžių, tapo kunigaikščio Augusto Čartoryskio ir Grocholskaitės (Vytauto Čartoryskio žmonos) mokytoju ir auklėtoju. Visi trys netrukus tapo vienuoliais. 1877 m. Kalinauskas įstojo į karmelitus Graze, Austrijoje.

Per jvilktutes Kalinauskas gavo Juozapo Rapolo vardą. Kunigystės šventimus gavo 1882 m. Černos vienuolyne, netoli Krokuvos, ir tais pačiais metais buvo išrinktas vienuolyne vyresniuoju. Kun. Kalinauskas uoliai éjo visas jam pavestas pareigas, rūpinosi savo bendruomenės dvasiiniu gyvenimu, jo bendraamžiai gerbė ir vertino jį kaip giliai dvasingą ir labai reiklų sau, bet atlaidų kitiems ganytojų. Dar jam gyvam esant, Krokuvos apylinkių žmonės laikė jį šventu.

Mirė jis Vadovicuose 1907 m. lapkričio 15 d.

Jo beatifikacijos byla pradėta 1934 m., 1980 m. dekrete buvo patvirtintas jo dorybių heroiskumas. 1983 m. Bažnyčia pripažino stebuklingą pagyjmą kun. Vladislovo Misiaus, sirgusio kaulų džiova ir prašiusio kun. Rapolo užtarimo. Tais pačiais metais, antrosios savo ganytojiskos kelionės į Lenkiją metu, birželio 22 d. Krokuvoje popiežius Jonas Paulius II kunigą vienuolių Rapolą Kalinauską paskelbė palaimintoju.

Pavyzdys nūdienos krikščionims

Bažnyčia dabar iškilmingai pripažino jo šventumą. Tokiu būdu Bažnyčia pristato tikintiesiems Kalinauską kaip Kristaus mokinį, kaip nuoseklų Jézaus sekėją. Juozapas Rapolas Kalinauskas — inžinierius, patriotas, tremtinys, mokytojas, kunigas ir vienuolis visą savo gyvenimą éjo prie Dievo. Savo kančias jis sugebėjo pakeisti į Dievo ir artimo, meilę, kurią paliudijo tarnavimu bei atsidavimui.

Kalinausko gyvenimo kelias vedė jį per visą Eurazijos kontinentą — nuo Vilniaus į Sibiro tyry, nuo Irkucko į Paryžiaus ir Krokuvos. Šio šventojo asmuo liudija žmogiškaji solidarumą, kurio pagrindas glūdi ir sunkiai laikotarpyje, kai ištisos tau-tos ir milijonai žmonių ieško savo kelio ir savosios paskirties istorijoje. Kalinausko asmuo gali būti pavyzdžiu nūdienio laikotarpio krikščionims. V.L.R.

— Kalėdiniam sveikinimė

Lietuvos kardinolas ir vyskupai tikintiesiems primena, kad Lietuvoje, nors jis ir ižengė į politinės laisvės ir nepriklausomybės kelią, daugelio pečius dar slegia ydų ir netikusių įpročių balastas. Ganytojai primena pasinaudoti priemonėmis, kurias nurodo Išganytojas: atsiverti tikėjimo palaimingam veikimui, kad visi galėtų tapti Dievo malonės jrankiai, sėjā žemėje gérionės skėlą.

PASAULINIS MUZIKOS FESTIVALIS KOLUMBO PENKIŲ ŠIMTŲ METŲ SUKAKČIAI

— Išskirtinai pagerbtas prof. Vytautas Landsbergis —

Pirmasis keliaujantis pasaulinis muzikos festivalis "Senieji ir naujieji Indijos keliai" gruodžio 13 d. pristatytas Romoje muzikos mylėtojams, kultūros veikėjams, tarptautinei spaudai. Festivalį rengia tarptautinė muzikos ir meno asociacija "Trys Karavelės", minint Amerikos atradimo penkių šimtų metų sukaktį.

Tuo festivaliu norima pabréžti pasauliui Kristupo Kolumbo, kaip didžiojo atradėjo, asmenybę, paskatinti šiuolaikinius žmones, prisimenant Amerikos atradimo sukaktį, iš naujo vėl atrasti žmoniją vienjančias vertėbes — broliškumą, dvasingumą ir lygybę.

Šių vertibių atradimas ir jų įtvirtinimas viešame gyvenime, sako festivalio rengėjai, yra laidas taikos ir santarvės įgyvendinimui dabartiniame — vis dar neramiamame pasaulyje.

"Trių Karavelių" festivalio garbės komitete, drauge su kitais žymiais politiniais veikėjais, kultūrininkais, muzikais iš įvairių pasaulio kraštų yra ir Vytautas Landsbergis. Garbės pirminknu yra žymusis violončelistas Mstislavas Rostropovičius, kuris per festivalio pristatymą visuomenei pasveikino Vytautą Landsbergį, jį pagerbė ne tik kaip muzikologą, bet taip pat kaip vieną žymiuju dabartinio meto politinių veikėjų, vadovavusių dabar laimėtai lietuvių tautos kovai už laisvę ir nepriklausomybę.

Po festivalio pristatymo Vytautas Landsbergis atsakinėjo į gausių žurnalistų klausimus, po to dalyvavo festivalio organizatorių jo ir Rostropovičiaus garbei surengtuose pietuose, o vakare su žmona — Mstislavo Rostropovičiaus koncerte.

Sekančios dienos spauda antrašte "Pasaulinio garso violončelistas Rostropovičius pagerbė laisvą Lietuvą" italų žinių agentūra ANSA skelbė žinią apie Rostropovičiaus vakarykštį koncertą Romoje su Sauliaus Sondeckio vadovaujamu Lietuvos kameriniu orkestru. Koncertas vyko Šv. Cecilio muzikos akademijos salėje. (Teatro Argentina). Salė buvo pilna žmonių. Lietuvos kamerinis orkestras atliko iš viso keturis kūrinius — dvi Haydno ir Čaikovskio simfonijas ir du tų pačių kompozitorių koncertus violončelei su solistu Rostropovičium. Visus kūrinius Romos publika palydėjo karštais ir ilgais plojimais.

Atsiliepdami į publikos prašymą, orkestras ir solistas suteikė vieną bisą, taip pat Čaikovskio "andante cantabile". Koncerete dalyvavusį Lietuvos Aukščiausiosios Tarybos pirmininką Landsbergį su žmona Rostropovičius iš scenos nuoširdžiai pasveikino. Tai buvo pirmas kar-tas, kai pasaulinio garso violončelistas grojo su Lietuvos kameriniu orkestru, tuo išreikšdamas savo solidarumą su laisvę atgavusia Lietuva.

Po koncerto, Landsbergis padékojo Rostropovičiui, taip pat orkestro dirigentui Sondeckiui ir visiems orkestro nariams.

Tuo koncertu pradėtas pasaulinis keliaujantis muzikos festivalis. Jo rėmuose per visus 1992-ujosius metus bus rengiami žymiuju muzikos atlikėjų koncertai įvاريose kraštuose, tikimasi, ir Lietuvoje.

IVYKIAI LIETUVOJE

— Lietuvos Respublikos Aukščiausiosios Tarybos prezidiumas priėmė nutarimą, kuriuo sausio 13-oji pavadinta Laisvės gynėjų diena. Sudaryta valstybinė komisija šios dienos renginiams organizuoti. Komisijos pirmininkas — Aukščiausiosios Tarybos pirmininko pavaduotojas Kazimieras Motieka.

— Švedija Kalėdų švenčių proga atsiuntė Telšiams dovanų — tai medicinos technika, maiisto produktai, drabužiai. Dovanos atiteko miesto vaikų namams, Duseikių internato globotiniams ir vienišiems seneliams.

— Prieš Kalėdų šventes daugiau kaip 5,000 eglucių Klaipėdos, Kretingos, Palangos, Gargždų ir Skuodo rajonų gyventojams paruošė Kretingos miškų urėdijos miškininkai. Kretingiskiai 1,500 kalėdinį eglucių išsiuntė ir į Graikiją.

— Kauno žurnalistai "Šv. Kalėdų proga atšventė įkurtuvės. Senasis pastatas Putvinskio gatvėje Nr. 48 nuo dabar bus Kauno žurnalistų namai. Kaune leidžiama per 50 periodinių leidinių, juose dirba beveik 100 Lietuvos žurnalistų Sąjungos narių. Švenčių proga čia buvo pagerbtai labiausiai pasižymėję žurnalistai. Savo namuose žurnalistai turės konferencijų salę, naudosis tarptautinių ryšių prieinėmis. Čia bus apgyvendinami užsienio žurnalistai, veiks kavinė.

— Kalėdų angelų paroda atidaryta Kaune, Maironio lietuvių literatūros muziejaus požemio salėje. Skulptorė Rimantė Butkutė ir tapytoja Živilė Baltušnaitė parodai pateikė kelias dešimtis angelų ir paveikslų.

— Dotnuvos gyventoja T. Minkevič išaugino 2,8 metro aukščio rožę "Kardinolę", iki šiol didžiausią Lietuvoje.

— JAV ambasada pranešė, kad Vilniuje nuo 1992 m. sausio 6 d. išduodamos neemigracinių vizos. Prašymai tenkinami eilės tvarka pagal gaunamus pareiškimus. Ambasada šią paslaugą teiks Lietuvos piliečiams ir nuolatiniam gyventojams.

New CrusadeFr. Peyton Sponsors Rosaries for Russia

Albany, N.Y. - Father Patrick Peyton, CSC, founder of the Family Rosary Crusade, with headquarters in Albany, New York, has announced a drive to obtain one million rosaries to send to Russia.

While there are many organizations worldwide who are assisting with the physical needs of these freed people, it is the intent of this drive to lend assistance to their spiritual needs.

Father Pat is requesting that people send in their own rosaries, which are precious to them, to give someone in Russia. He feels that someone giving his/her own rosary will be united with the one who receives it.

It is Father Pat's hope that through the family rosary these new freedom pioneers in Russia will be able to overcome the many obstacles they will face.

He is currently planning to provide pamphlets explaining the rosary in the native language of the recipients.

Father Peyton will be pleased to accept any rosaries - new or old - to be shared with our brethren who for years have suffered religious persecution.

The rosaries may be sent to:

TIME MOVES ON

If you would do a kindness, it is not wise to wait
You never know how quickly it's going to be too late.

Please Lord, Teach us to laugh again! But God, don't ever let us forget that we cried.

"The Way, The Truth and The Life"

Lord, we are afraid to look to tomorrow's world, we no longer trust in ourselves.

We no longer believe in limitless progress, which was to ensure future happiness.

We no longer believe that science in the salvation of mankind.

We no longer believe that man is an end in himself nor Death life's final word.

We know: were a nuclear disaster to occur tomorrow by mishap or design,

As at Chernobyl, few would survive to count or bury the dead.

Lord, as you look at the Church embodying Your Son's promise of Eternal Life.

We realize how weak and poor in spirit we, your disciples, are How poor in Christian spirit.

Yet our Pastors are urgently pressing us to engage in a new second apostolate,

To become true and loyal Christians, fully committed to our Baptismal vows.

Help us, Father, to rediscover the zeal of the first Christians,

And the power of the first apostolate launched from that upper room in Jerusalem,

That Pentecost morning when your disciples, in prayerful assembly with Mary,

Awaited the fulfillment of your promise.

Grant us the grace to be renewed by the "Holy Spirit and Fire."

Teach us to address the world with tongues of fire.

Allow us to end that age of indecision when Christians are timid and silent.

As on the road to Emmaus, anxiously discussing daily problems,

Unconvinced that the Lord is Risen and Living/

Lord, open our hearts to accept the Holy Spirit.

Teach us to await His arrival like Mary did

At the Annunciation and again at Pentecost, the Church's birthday,

When she became our Mother also.

Teach the next generation that your Son, Jesus Christ

Is forever the Redeemer of the world,

Help us to proclaim aloud and boldly that He is "The Way, The Truth and The Life,"

The Way that leads us to our final destination!

The Truth that lights our way all night long!

The Life that bestows profound peace, tranquility and joy which no creature can destroy.
