

An American Nut Loose in Sweden

By GRAF ERNEST

This one installment was to have harbored all of my impressions of Sweden, but I think it would be rather terrifying... I shall just record some slipshod statements.

I entered Sweden through the little Swedish motorboat 'Martebohm' with my passport properly stamped... The town was quite an old one. Low stone cliffs overhung some parts of the town.

Leaders to Hold First Dance of Season

Be Prepared! It's an old model but in no sense of the word a new one... The dance will be held at the Lyceum Theatre, 70th St., at 8 o'clock.

A Word of Explanation to Brooklyn Readers

About two weeks back, Laivse wrote me that I had written an article which narrative dealt with the picnic at Pitman... I take this as a compliment.

R. Burke Battles for Reinstatement to Columbia Univ.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Golden Glove Champ Bob Burke is facing the fight of his life today and it isn't a bout in the ring either... Burke is fighting for his reinstatement to Columbia University.

AM. DELEGATES PLAN Students Demand Union School Teachers

JASPER, Ala.—Jasper will be a hundred percent union town, if the school children and their parents have anything to say about it... The union has demanded that school teachers be organized.

PROFESSOR TACKLES 'ETERNAL QUESTION'

STORRS, Conn.—If you're engaged to be married—hold off. You will not be taking a chance on happiness if you wait six or seven years, until Dr. E. Lowell Kelley, assistant professor of psychology at Connecticut State College, finishes his study on how to be happy through marriage.

WASHINGTON—Jobs in private employment for 2,065 young people between the ages of 16 and 25 were secured during August through the National Employment Service of the National Youth Administration.

SECOND PART ABOUT WORKINGCLASS YOUTH AND THEIR ORGANIZATIONS

Brooklyn, N. Y., Thursday, October 1, 1936 No. 231

THE JOHN SMITHS comic strip featuring Harold Magin and various characters in a humorous setting. Includes dialogue like 'I'll drop over to the E-Z-Upstart... now to get the low-down on the strikers!' and 'Hello, boss! I'm getting along great with the setup!'.

So gigantic is the Golden Gate Bridge project that even the rope net, swung under the girders on which the roadway is to be laid, costs $8,000. Many ferry boatmen will lose their jobs when the San Francisco Bay Job is completed, but they won't be sorry.

Students throughout the entire United States have been called on to demonstrate in their behalf on Monday, October 4th, by the A. S. U., which is one of the leading groups in the fight for Burke's reinstatement.

Affidavits prepared by the Burke Defense Comm., which was hurriedly set up during the summer vacation, ten to show that if any disorder did occur at the demonstration, Burke was in no way responsible for it and at the time took steps to curb it.
